

NOTES:

- 1) Many thanks to Mr. Sato for kindly providing the original drawing.
- 2) The original drawing is the reference that you want to use should you find a difference between it and this drawing. And you will, this drawing is just for my case, yours will certainly be different.
- 3) If you take nothing else away from this drawing, please check out 1CN and 2CN for pin assignments.
- 4) The JAE connectors are labeled 1 - 10 on the top, and 1 - 10 on the bottom. Bless their hearts... See note 3.
